

SUPPORT HUMANITARIAN EFFORTS IN LVIV, UKRAINE

The humanitarian crisis in Ukraine only continues to grow and your support is urgently needed.

UCU Foundation has just launched the Ukraine Emergency Fund that will support humanitarian aid and emergency relief efforts at Ukrainian Catholic University. Millions of Ukrainians have fled their homes, and civilian casualties are mounting daily as cities in Ukraine are under siege. Refugees who are fleeing, many of whom are women and children, are heading to Western Ukraine where the University is located. In response to these horrific acts, Ukrainian Catholic University has quickly refocused itself on supporting those affected by the war. UCU students, faculty and staff have galvanized their efforts and are volunteering and serving in many ways by accepting refugees on the UCU campus, organizing medical supply relief through the newly established Humanitarian Support Collection Center on the UCU campus, and providing mental health support to those who are experiencing trauma. With your generosity and prayerful support, we can continue this important work in Ukraine.

ABOUT UCU FOUNDATION

The Ukrainian Catholic University Foundation is an American-based 501(c)3 organization and was founded in 1997 to support and fund the growth and operations of the Ukrainian Catholic University (UCU) in Lviv, Ukraine.
